

LAST MAN STANDING - 2020/21 - GAME 1- ROUND 3

26th-28th September

66 players were still standing at the start of Round 3. Ten different teams were picked this week (two of them by default) with at least two teams guaranteeing some exits.

The Saturday lunchtime game at the Amex stadium saw Brighton face Manchester United - David Hayhoe, Gary Nelson, Jay Nevid and Ben Donafee all go through after a penalty was awarded after full time, seeing United win 3-2. John Thompson goes out after picking the Seagulls. Saturday teatime saw Chelsea heading to the Hawthorns to play West Brom - thirteen players had picked Chelsea but, despite a second half come back from Chelsea, are dumped out after a 3-3 draw. In the late game, Burnley played Southampton at Turfmoor - Peter Carroll and Michael Grierson had picked Burnley to win this one but a 1-0 win for the Saints sees them go out.

On Sunday afternoon, Tottenham played at 2pm, welcoming Newcastle to the Tottenham stadium - thirty-two players had picked Spurs to win this one, making them this week's clear favourites - however, they all go out with Newcastle's first shot on target with an injury time penalty to make it 1-1. In the tea time game, Manchester City played Leicester City at the Etihad - six players went for the Cityzens and also exit after their 5-2 defeat. The late Sunday game saw West Ham take on Wolves at the London stadium - Craig Milton had picked Wolves to win this one and he joined the growing list of casualties from this round after a 4-0 win for the Hammers.

Monday teatime saw Aston Villa head down to Craven Cottage to play Fulham - Lewis Donnelly had picked Villa to win this and he goes through after a 3-0 win for Villa. Carl Jackson Snr, Peter Donnelly, Adam Dealing and Neil Taggart all forgot to send an entry in last week so they all got Villa by default and go through as well, spawny gits!! In the last game of the weekend, Liverpool faced Arsenal at Anfield - Ross Milton had picked the Champions to win this one, whilst Patrick Boddy got Arsenal by default - a 3-1 win for the Reds sees Ross through and Patrick out.

So, fifty-six players exit the game, leaving just ten players still standing. Deadline for Round 4 (fixtures below) will be 7pm on Friday 1st October - I recommend replying to this mail or set yourself a reminder later in the week to submit an entry!!
