

LAST MAN STANDING - 2021/22 - GAME 1- ROUND 1

13th-15th August

Round 1 is now complete.

Brentford and Arsenal kicked the season off on Friday night at the Brentford Community Stadium and both teams were picked! Jenny Rothwell must be feeling pretty smug picking Brentford as they beat the Gunners 2-0 which means Adele Ward, Jack Lockley, Peter Carter and Trevor Faulkner became the first players to drop out of the game!

Onto Saturday lunchtime and a big clash as Manchester United welcomed Leeds United to Old Trafford - Glenys Goodier, Lisa Mensah, Zara Turner, Andrew Carter and Ste Pajak ease through to Round 2 after a 5-1 win. Five teams featured in the 3pm games - Burnley took on Brighton at Turfmoor, Stew Williams had picked Burnley to win this one but goes out after a 2-1 win for the Seagulls. Chelsea played Crystal Palace at Stamford Bridge and 47 players had made Chelsea the clear favourites in this round and they all progressed after a 3-0 win. Everton faced Southampton at Goodison Park, Carl Hughes, Michael Grierson, Ste Corbett and Gaz Street go through after a 3-1 win for the Blues. Leicester took on Wolves at the King Power Stadium, 17 players had picked the Foxes and they go through after a 1-0 win. Watford resumed their Premier League life with a game against Aston Villa at Vicarage Road, Ben Gainford, Daniel Pickering, James Smith and Ken Williams had picked Villa and go out after a 3-2 win for Watford. In the tea-time game, Norwich welcomed Liverpool to Carrow Road - 16 players had picked the Reds to win this one and go through after a 3-0 win.

On Sunday, in the early kick off, Newcastle played West Ham at St James' Park - Stephen Milton, Owen Donnelly and Lewis Donnelly had opted for the Hammers here and they will have been relieved as the West Ham came from behind twice to win 4-2.

9 players go out in Round 1, leaving 93 players still standing. Deadline for Round 2 will revert to the normal time of noon, on Friday 20th August.
