

LAST MAN STANDING - 2021/22 - GAME 1- ROUND 2

21st-23rd August

93 players were still standing for Round 2. Ten different teams were picked in this round with a couple of guaranteed eliminations.

On Saturday, Liverpool faced Burnley at Anfield in the lunchtime game - 19 players were hoping for a Reds win and they go through after a 2-0 win. In the 3pm games, Aston Villa took on Newcastle at Villa Park in a game which would see at least one player go out - six players go through after a 2-0 win for Villa, which meant Carl Jackson goes out. Crystal Palace played Brentford at Selhurst Park, Lewis Donnelly had picked the Bees and goes out after a goalless draw. Leeds welcomed Everton to Elland Road - Matty Stammer had picked Leeds and exits after a 2-2 draw. Manchester City take on Norwich at the Emirates and were picked by 52 players - they eased through to Round 3 after a 5-0 win. In the teatime game, Brighton played Watford at the Amex Stadium and Vikki Darby goes through after a 2-0 win for the Seagulls.

On Sunday, Manchester United headed down to St Mary's to play Southampton - 9 players were expecting a United win but they go out after a 1-1 draw. In the later game, Arsenal had a London derby against Chelsea at the Emirates - Zara Turner had picked Chelsea to win while no entry was received from Paul Davies and Richie Gibbons, so they both got Arsenal by default. A 2-0 win for Chelsea sees the two defaulters go out.

79 players are still standing for Round 3. Deadline for Round 3 is noon, on Friday 27th August.
